Volunteer during Hong Kong's Community Service Week

As Hong Kong experiences a third wave of the COVID-19 crisis, the impact on our entire community is great. Volunteer support is vital as frontline charities continue their tireless work serving the city's most vulnerable.

This year's Serve-a-thon provides assistance to those worst impacted, through nine days of consecutive volunteering. The service calendar includes virtual opportunities—allowing people to safely volunteer from home—as well as in-person relief programs. Since the initiative launched, more than 50,000 people in need have been supported.
